Advisory Program – Thematic Portfolios

For donors seeking to address specific investment objectives for their Giving Fund account, the J.P. Morgan Advisory Program offers a thematic approach to investing for their Giving Fund accounts

DYNAMIC YIELD STRATEGY (DYS)

Asset Class: Fixed Income*

Description: Aims to generate yield and long-term capital appreciation by investing in multiple asset classes across global markets, with a preference toward fixed income.

- Seeks lower sensitivity to U.S. interest rates than core fixed income, and volatility lower than U.S. equity markets, over a full market cycle.
- Expected to have higher volatility than core fixed income over a market cycle.

DYNAMIC MULTI-ASSET STRATEGY (DMAS)

Asset Class: Multi-Asset

Description: Seeks to achieve total returns, with a predominant focus on capital growth and income and a secondary focus on principal preservation.

- Intended to maintain a moderate exposure to risk of capital loss and will be managed with flexible asset allocation parameters.

SUSTAINABLE EQUITY & SUSTAINABLE FIXED INCOME STRATEGIES (SES/SFIS)

Asset Class: Equity & Fixed Income

Description: Global, multi-manager equity and fixed income portfolios that aims to hold at least 80% of its investments in ESG-designated funds.

- ESG-designated funds are believed to incorporate ESG principles into their assessment of companies, and in some instances target sustainable themes.

* Categorized based on the primary asset class exposure, though these strategies have the ability to invest in another asset class. Strategies listed above are available onshore. Source: J.P. Morgan, as of May 2020.

J.P. Morgan charges a Portfolio Advisory Fee on assets invested in a managed solution. Please see Appendix for additional details.

J.P. Morgan charges a Client Service Investment Fee on assets invested in the a-la carte menu of Single Strategy Investment Options.

Expand your impact by recommending a Legacy Plan

Discover the power you have to make lasting changes.

Option 1: Individual Successors

- Name one or more Individual Successor(s), each to be designated as a Primary Advisor on a new DAF account
- Select the percentage of DAF assets designated to each named Individual Successor(s)
- If division of assets for Option 1 creates DAF account(s) with balance(s) below $25,000, successor(s) will have 90 days to bring balance up to $25,000 DAF minimum or recommend grants to qualified charities
- If a named Individual Successor is not able or willing to serve, their portion will be allocated proportionally among the other named Successors.

Option 2: Charitable Beneficiaries

- Designate one or more charities to receive a lump-sum grant at the time of Legacy Plan activation
- Select the percentage of DAF assets designated to each named Charitable Beneficiary
- If a designated charity is not eligible to receive a grant at the time of Legacy Plan activation, designated assets will be reallocated among the remaining charities

Option 3: Endowment Program ($100,000 minimum required)*

- Select the total percentage of DAF assets designated to Option 3- Endowment Program
- Select the percentage of endowment account assets to be distributed annually among all named charities ('Annual Payout')
- Designate one or more charities to receive an annual grant and specify the percentage that each charity will receive. The total allocation must equal 100%*Example: Charity #1 (40%), Charity #2 (60%)
- Assets allocated to the Endowment Option will be invested in the Conservative Investment Pool available at the time of activation; trading will occur within 90 days of the receipt of written notice of the Legacy Plan activation (e.g., death certificate)
- When an Endowment Account balance reaches $25,000, final lump-sum grant(s) will be made to designated charities

* $100,000 minimum required at the time of Legacy Plan activation for Endowment Program eligibility. If available DAF assets are less than $100,000, this Legacy Plan selection will revert to Option 2

 If no designated charity is eligible to receive grants at the time of Legacy Plan activation, NPT will make a grant to qualified charitable organization(s) as similar as possible in mission and scope(as determined by NPT in its sole discretion) or will reserve the right to transfer the balance of the account to the NPT Giving Fund

Corporate DAFs

Choosing a corporate DAF structure for your firm

A corporate donor-advised fund offers the strategic benefits of a foundation, while simultaneously giving employees the autonomy to support their own causes

Potential DAF Structures for a Firm

Employees and/or firm fund a single account:

- ✓ Good for small firms (<10 employees)
- ✓ Single DAF represents the firm
- ✓ Recommendations are made by committee
- Not designed for personal grantmaking; but rather firm philanthropy

Employees have their own individual accounts:

- ✓ Each employee has their own DAF for personal grantmaking
- ✓ Option for partners to pay DAF fees for employees' accounts
- ✓ Household pricing for firms with DAF assets >$50MM
- No DAF representing the firm's philanthropy

Firm Account + Individual Accounts:

- ✓ Household pricing for firms with DAF assets >$50MM
- ✓ Option for Firm DAF to pay DAF fees for employees' accounts
- ✓ Option for employee contribution matching from the Firm DAF

For illustrative purposes only. Figures may not add due to rounding. Information herein is believed to be reliable, but JPMorgan does not warrant its completeness or accuracy. This material is not intended to provide, and should not be relied on for, accounting, legal or tax advice, or investment recommendations.

Note: Gift to a DAF generates the same tax deduction as an outright gift to charity. Tax regulations limit the deductible amount of charitable gifts depending on the asset given, the donor's adjusted gross income (AGI), state of residence, and the status of the charity receiving the gift. JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its affiliates and employees do not provide tax, legal or accounting advice. This material has been prepared for informational purposes only. You should consult your own tax, legal and accounting advisors before engaging in any financial transactions. This table assumes that all property has been held by the donor for more than one year.

*Any unused deductions may be carried forward up to five (5) additional years.

Process – How to get started

Individuals, companies, foundations, trusts and estates, as well as certain other qualifying entities, are all eligible to open DAFs. Corporations or other business entities may create accounts with the Charitable Giving Fund rather than start a foundation or other giving program

1. In some cases the donor may appoint a third party advisor.

2. Grants to foreign charities may be subject to additional due diligence and applicable fees

Making the most of a firm-wide donor-advised fund program

Key items to consider

Benefits

- ✓ Flexibility on structure (single Corporate vs. individual employee DAFs)
- ✓ Administration of grantmaking and due diligence outsourced
- ✓ Enables employee gift matching*
- ✓ Can accept complex and illiquid assets with low basis (GP/LP interest, private company stock, restricted public stock)
- ✓ Administrative fees are based on aggregate firm assets
- ✓ Can establish a culture of philanthropy through firm and employee DAF activity

Considerations

- ✓ Sponsoring charity of the DAF retains control of assets (firm and employees act as advisors)
- ✓ Minimum AUM of $2MM for corporate program
- ✓ Employee gift matching limited to activity within the DAF program
- ✓ Certain DAF structures may limit employee input for investment and grant recommendations

Considerations

Considering different charitable vehicles

When defining your charitable objectives, ask yourself three simple questions:

- When do I want to give?
- How much do I want to give?
- How much control do I want to retain over my contribution?

Donor-Advised Funds	Private Foundations	Charitable Lead Trusts (CLT)
▪ Offer many of the advantages of foundations, but can be established with fewer resources and involve less administration ▪ Generate immediate tax deductions, but assets can be distributed over several years ▪ Donor can recommend asset allocation among a variety of investment vehicles offered through J.P. Morgan	▪ Donor retains a high degree of control over the investment and distribution of funds ▪ Donor can develop expertise in targeted areas and strategies ▪ Structured approach can help the donor better understand what gaps remain to be filled	▪ May allow donor to give all gifted assets while retaining some control through the trust structure ▪ Charity receives cash flow from the trust for a fixed period, after which the remaining assets pass to family members ▪ Highly effective wealth transfer vehicle

Converting a private foundation to a donor-advised fund

¹ This length of time is associated mostly with closing down the foundation, not with opening or transferring assets into the donor-advised fund. A donor-advised fund account can be opened within 10 days.

² Under federal tax law, the recipient charity of the foundation's assets must have been in continuous existence for the immediately preceding five years. If this is not the case, additional compliance, including written notice to the IRS, is required.

³ If your private foundation is a trust, a final court accounting may be required.

JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its affiliates and employees do not provide tax, legal or accounting advice. This material is an overview and has been prepared for informational purposes only. If you decide to convert your private foundation to a donor-advised fund account, you will need to abide by state regulations where your foundation was created. You should consult your own tax, legal and accounting advisors before closing your private foundation or making any charitable contributions.

Making the most of your donor-advised fund

Key questions to consider

- Are there restrictions on what types of assets I can contribute?
- Do I need to make a certain number of grants during a given time period?
- What are the fees associated with a donor-advised fund?
- What are the investment options available to me?
- Can I give internationally?
- Can I name successors for my donor-advised fund? Can they name additional successors?
- What kind of support will be available to me once I set up my donor-advised fund account?

Charitable Giving Fund (CGF) fees for standard accounts

Annual charitable administrative fee

Each Charitable Giving Fund Account (CGF) is subject to an annual charitable administrative fee, paid to National Philanthropic Trust (NPT) for administering the account. The administrative fee covers such operating expenses as processing contributions, grant making, recordkeeping, quarterly statements, audit, tax filings, and the handling of other legal and fiscal responsibilities. The administrative fee rate is calculated based on a tiered, blended fee schedule, and is charged monthly, in arrears, based on the average ending daily balance of the account for the given period. Accounts with a balance of less than $25,000 will be charged a minimum administrative fee of $200 per year.

Account balance*	Fee
First $250,000	0.75%
Next $250,000	0.60%
Next $500,000	0.35%
Next $9 million	0.20%
Next $15 million	0.15%
Next $25 million	0.10%
Next $25 million	0.075%
Balance over $75 million	0.05%

Investment fees

The J.P. Morgan Portfolio Advisory Fee is assessed on assets in a Charitable Giving Fund account that is invested in a managed portfolio solution, paid quarterly to J.P. Morgan. The Portfolio Advisory Fee is 0.20%, or 20 basis points, and is subject to change. For CGF account assets held in the a-la carte menu of J.P. Morgan mutual funds and third-party ETFs, a client service investment fee of 0.05% (5 basis points) will be assessed, and paid quarterly to J.P. Morgan. The individual solutions in which Charitable Giving Fund assets are invested will charge an annual expense ratio. Additional liquidation and applicable product fees may also apply.

Illiquid gift and specialized grantmaking processing fees

If you donate illiquid assets or wish to make a specialized grant, including international grants, additional fees apply.

*See J.P. Morgan Portfolio Advisory Fee for additional details

International grantmaking services

The J.P. Morgan Charitable Giving Fund allows donors to recommend direct grants to international charities through J.P. Morgan's partnership with National Philanthropic Trust (NPT)

- Grants to charities overseas require additional due diligence to determine their eligibility, as well as monitoring and reporting once awarded.
- To process international grants, NPT can use Expenditure Responsibility (ER) or Equivalency Determination (ED) due diligence processes to ensure and verify that the grant funds are used for charitable purposes.

Account Balance	International Grantmaking Fees
$0–$5 million	$1,750/grant
$5 million–$10 million	One free grant annually, then $1,750 per each additional grant
$10 million and above	Three free grants annually, then $1,750 per each additional grant
- For ER grants, subsequent grants in a 12-month period will be discounted by 50% - For ED grants, subsequent grants in a 12-month period are included

- NPT reserves the right to charge additional fees for any added (out of the ordinary) due diligence necessary, such as, but not limited to, site visits, translation services, high-risk areas, advice from legal counsel and reporting issues. The related fees will be assessed additionally against the Charitable Giving Fund account assets.
- All international grants are sent via wire in U.S. dollars. If the donor prefers that the grant be made in local currency, there will be an additional processing charge of $175 plus any applicable currency exchange fees.
- Any Charitable Giving Fund accounts set up solely to grant to overseas charities will be charged via the fee schedule, plus any short-term fee if more than 95% of the assets in the account are granted out within 12 months of account opening. The fee will be equal to the greater of (1) $500 or (2) two percent (2%) of the opening balance in the account during the 12-month period (up to a maximum fee of $25,000).

The information contained herein is provided for illustrative purposes only and should not be relied upon in isolation for the purpose of making an investment decision. For more information on product profiles and trade ideas, which discusses risks, benefits, liquidity and other matters of interest, please contact your J.P. Morgan team.

Grant agreements

The J.P. Morgan Charitable Giving Fund allows donors to establish specialized grant agreements through J.P. Morgan's partnership with National Philanthropic Trust (NPT)

- NPT drafts and finalizes a gift agreement with a charity based on the donor's intent if they wish to make a grant that requires specific terms, such as:

Benchmarking	Matching or challenge grant provisions
Results and research findings	Restrictions on use of funds
Reporting requirements	Recognition

- NPT charges a fee for the development of grant agreements, to be paid from the CGF account.
- Legal counsel reviews all grant agreements into which NPT will enter. Charges are reimbursed to NPT from the CGF account.
- These grant agreements are legally binding and must be fulfilled according to the terms of the agreement.

Grant Agreement Fees

Account Balance	Fee
$0–$5 million	$1,750 plus legal fees per grant agreement
$5 million–$10 million	One free grant agreement annually, then $1,750 per grant agreement; legal fees will be expensed in all cases
$10 million and above	Three free grants annually, then $1,750 per grant agreement; legal fees will be expensed in all cases

NPT reserves the right to charge additional fees for any added (out of the ordinary) due diligence necessary, such as, but not limited to, site visits, translation services, high-risk areas, advice from legal counsel, reporting and monitoring needs/issues. The related fees will be assessed additionally against the Charitable Giving Fund assets.

Illiquid asset contribution guidelines

National Philanthropic Trust (NPT) accepts illiquid assets to help donors create or add to their J.P. Morgan Charitable Giving Fund accounts. Every illiquid asset is unique and subject to approval by NPT. Each gift is individually evaluated and, if approved, is managed to maximize its value and ensure compliance with IRS rules.

Contribution minimums

NPT has established minimum thresholds for accepting illiquid assets, as listed below:

Type of Asset	Contribution Minimum
Alternative investments (hedge funds and private equity)	$1 million
Privately held interest	$500,000
Real estate (residential and commercial)	$500,000
Tangible personal property (artwork and collectibles)	$250,000
Structured notes	$250,000
Restricted stock (including Rule 144/145)	$25,000
Cryptocurrency	$25,000

Gifts and investing in a donor's hedge fund

For general partners and their employees interested in donating an interest in their hedge fund, or other personal assets, and investing that contribution with their hedge fund, the following conditions must be met:

- ✓ Due Diligence: NPT conducts its own due diligence to determine whether a recommended investment is permissible under its Investment Policy Guidelines.
- ✓ Private Benefit: The individual may not receive any income, direct or indirect, from the investment.
- ✓ Unrelated Business Income Tax: NPT will pay unrelated business income tax attributable to the investment using an additional contribution from the donor, or through income distributions from the fund.
- ✓ Future Liabilities: NPT will not be held responsible for any future liabilities due to the investment, including capital calls, clawbacks and others.
- ✓ Asset Share: NPT's investment in the fund must be less than 10% of its total assets.
- ✓ Completed Gifts: In accordance with IRS policy, NPT must assume full legal control of the investment – this grants NPT the right to liquidate its position at any time based on the redemption terms of the fund.
- ✓ Liquidity: In order to pay charitable administrative expenses and the donor's grant recommendations, a portion of the DAF must be held in liquid assets.
- ✓ Regulation Changes: If the IRS Code or U.S. Treasury Regulations change, disallowing NPT from retaining the investment, NPT will liquidate its position immediately.
- ✓ Side Letter Agreements: In order to validate the tax deductibility of the gift and protect NPT's public charity tax status, NPT may require a side letter agreement with the donor. This may also include those who have control of the fund, such as the CFO.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

KEY RISKS

- The J.P. Morgan Charitable Giving Fund (the “Fund”) is offered under an agreement between J.P. Morgan and National Philanthropic Trust (“NPT”), a public charity incorporated in Pennsylvania. All investments will be made by NPT through J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and will remain the property of NPT. Under the terms of the Fund, the policies of NPT and applicable law, the account assets are the property of NPT, and NPT has the final approval over asset allocation and grant recommendations.
- Federal tax law makes it the responsibility of the donor to determine the value of a gift. J.P. Morgan and NPT will make reasonable efforts to process contributions in a timely manner, but will not be held liable for contributions not being recognized on a particular or certain date. For additional processing and technology information, please contact your J.P. Morgan team.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR INVESTMENTS AND POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Conflicts of interest will arise whenever JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or any of its affiliates (together, “J.P. Morgan”) have an actual or perceived economic or other incentive in its management of our clients' portfolios to act in a way that benefits J.P. Morgan. Conflicts will result, for example (to the extent the following activities are permitted in your account): (1) when J.P. Morgan invests in an investment product, such as a mutual fund, structured product, separately managed account or hedge fund issued or managed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or an affiliate, such as J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc.; (2) when a J.P. Morgan entity obtains services, including trade execution and trade clearing, from an affiliate; (3) when J.P. Morgan receives payment as a result of purchasing an investment product for a client's account; or (4) when J.P. Morgan receives payment for providing services (including shareholder servicing, recordkeeping or custody) with respect to investment products purchased for a client's portfolio. Other conflicts will result because of relationships that J.P. Morgan has with other clients or when J.P. Morgan acts for its own account.

Investment strategies are selected from both J.P. Morgan and third-party asset managers and are subject to a review process by our manager research teams. From this pool of strategies, our portfolio construction teams select those strategies we believe fit our asset allocation goals and forward looking views in order to meet the portfolio's investment objective.

As a general matter, we prefer J.P. Morgan managed strategies. We expect the proportion of J.P. Morgan managed strategies will be high (in fact, up to 100 percent) in strategies such as, for example, cash and high-quality fixed income, subject to applicable law and any account-specific considerations.

While our internally managed strategies generally align well with our forward-looking views, and we are familiar with the investment processes as well as the risk and compliance philosophy of the firm, it is important to note that J.P. Morgan receives more overall fees when internally managed strategies are included. We offer the option of choosing to exclude J.P. Morgan managed strategies (other than cash and liquidity products) in certain portfolios.
